Hi Sandy,

HD Supply is still working to revise Amendment #1 to our contract number 1385-12990. Can you please tell us the specific reason that Cook County needs to know who HD Supply's suppliers/vendors are, per ISF-1? I understand that Cook County is asking for a list of only the top 10 suppliers under the contract, but we need to know why Cook County is asking for this information in order to determine what we can provide. As I've mentioned, HD Supply is a publicly traded company, so we're just making sure that we are complying with applicable federal regulations related to releasing this information.

Thank you,

Hi Sandy,

I'd like to thank you and Barbara for taking time today to review the amendment with me and provide feedback on what needs to be updated. As we discussed:

- Attached are the HD Supply GP & Management, Inc. Board of Directors minutes that identify Robin Soehl as an authorized signatory. This is HD Supply's most up-to-date list of signatories.
- We will reach out to our Tax Team to determine if we have a Corporate File Number to add to EDS-6
- Before we remove the information of our owner companies from EDS-7, I'd like to note that EDS-6 shows that the term Person in this form includes a company and is not limited to people. With this in mind, would you still like us

Dear Contract Compliance Officer:

HD Supply Facilities Maintenance, Ltd. (HD Supply) knows the value of teaming with diverse businesses and understands their ability to offer quality products, services and innovation. Our Supplier Diversity Program was developed to build strong relationships with certified Minority-Owned, Women-Owned and other historically disadvantaged and small businesses. As a nationwide organization, HD Supply partners with Minority- and Woman-Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBE) around the country. While we understand that only businesses registered with Cook County will qualify toward meeting the M/WBE goals, we feel it is important for Cook County to understand HD Supply's commitment to diverse businesses. You can find more information on our corporate website at <https://supplier.hdsupply.com/diversity>. Notwithstanding, HD Supply will continue to work toward meeting Cook County's specific M/WBE standards because we believe in your mission, and as a business partner, we want to help you achieve your organizational goals.

The WBE that HD Supply used as a supplier under the current agreement, Bella Bagno, did not receive any orders because Cook County did not purchase any of its anti-microbial urinal mats. As of the date of this letter, Bella Bagno has not returned the signed Letter of Intent or the County certification for inclusion in our renewal amendment. We will continue reaching out to this supplier to determine if they are still interested in working with HD Supply in our performance of this agreement.

HD Supply downloaded the complete listing of Cook County certified M/WBE and reviewed each company to determine if the M/WBE was one of HD Supply's M/WBE suppliers. Through this due diligence, HD Supply identified three potential indirect vendors in our vendor database that may be certified with Cook County. In order to determine if these vendors can be used toward the M/WBE goals, an in-depth review is required. Once our review is complete, we will reach out to the qualifying vendors and updated our EDS records with the County.

Currently, HD Supply's National Account Manager is also exploring possible partnerships with our Renovation Services team in the Cook County area. Many of our service-providing subcontractors are M/WBE companies. As HD Supply's renovation presence in the Cook County area grows, so will our opportunities to utilize these M/WBE subcontractors.

HD Supply will continue working to identify Cook County certified M/WBE companies.

Sincerely,

Courtney Hunter
Contracts Supervisor

FAMILIAL RELATIONSHIP DISCLOSURE PROVISION

Nepotism Disclosure Requirement:

Doing a significant amount of business with the County requires that you disclose to the Board of Ethics the existence of any familial relationships with any County employee or any person holding elective office in the State of Illinois, the County, or in any municipality within the County. The Ethics Ordinance defines a significant amount of business for the purpose of this disclosure requirement as more than $25,000 in aggregate County leases, contracts, purchases or sales in any calendar year.

If you are unsure of whether the business you do with the County or a County agency will cross this threshold, err on the side of caution by completing the attached familial disclosure form because, among other potential penalties, any person found guilty of failing to make a required disclosure or knowingly filing a false, misleading, or incomplete disclosure will be prohibited from doing any business with the County for a period of three years. The required disclosure should be filed with the Board of Ethics by January 1 of each calendar year in which you are doing business with the County and again with each bid/proposal/quotation to do business with Cook County. The Board of Ethics may assess a late filing fee of $100 per day after an initial 30-day grace period.

The person that is doing business with the County must disclose his or her familial relationships. If the person on the County lease or contract or purchasing from or selling to the County is a business entity, then the business entity must disclose the familial relationships of the individuals who are and, during the year prior to doing business with the County, were:

- its board of directors,
- its officers,
- its employees or independent contractors responsible for the general administration of the entity,
- its agents authorized to execute documents on behalf of the entity, and
- its employees who directly engage or engaged in doing work with the County on behalf of the entity.

Do not hesitate to contact the Board of Ethics at (312) 603-4304 for assistance in determining the scope of any required familial relationship disclosure.

Additional Definitions:

"Familial relationship" means a person who is a spouse, domestic partner or civil union partner of a County employee or State, County or municipal official, or any person who is related to such an employee or official, whether by blood, marriage or adoption, as a:
